SUNRISE CHAPEL / Chapels of Nature V

"Thy mercies are new every morning" - Lamentations 3:23

Sunrise graces us with a radiant metaphor for faith. No matter how dark the night, the day will dawn, renewing the Lord's tender mercies and rewarding the hopes of the faithful.

Glorious Sunrise Chapel, its lights ablaze, is ideal for a deeply moving sunrise service. Its lights beckon; perhaps by strolling the lush hillside paths you might find your way to the entrance verandah, which I envision on the far side of the chapel overlooking the view.

I've employed my most dramatic color scheme in years to suggest the radiance of God's love. Wispy clouds illuminated by the barely visible sun reflect in the silvery mirror of the brilliant lake waters, announcing the dawn of a new day filled with discovery, hope, and beauty.

The landscape is symbolic; the distant mountains that flow into the far horizon are watered by rivers and lakes suggesting the passage of time. The rocks that line the headlands remind us of the strength of our faith. Sunrise Chapel is an inspiration that can comfort us following even the darkest night.

Key Points

1. Sunrise Chapel has been released in an edition size of 1750, in each size.
2. Sunrise Chapel is the fifth image in the Chapels of Nature series, and is part of the Studio Masterworks Collection.
3. Thom has placed a total of five N's in Sunrise Chapel, as a continuing tribute to his beloved wife, Nanette.
4. The sunrise Thom has painted in Sunrise Chapel is one of the most dramatic he has ever depicted on canvas. The dramatic colors and vibrant light are a metaphor for God's love in our lives.
5. As with many of Thom's paintings, Sunrise Chapel is heavily symbolic. The flow of water through rivers and lakes symbolizes the passage of time; light, of course, symbolizes God's light and impact on our lives as it shines from the heavens as well as through the stained glass windows of the chapel; the ancient stones that line the headland are a symbol for our unwavering faith in God's promise.
6. The unique landscape Thom has painted in Sunrise Chapel evokes a peace and serenity upon the viewer. Step inside this holy vista, the lights of the sunrise service about to begin are beckoning you!
