When Thomas Kinkadee first took brush to canvas on his classic Disney painting, The Little Mermaid, he paused to write that the film “captures the innocent nature of first love. Love is powerful, love is captivating and first love absolutely enchants!” And when first love becomes true love, it lasts forever.

In The Little Mermaid II, the Thomas Kinkadee Studios capture the moment when love first awakens. Prince Eric and Ariel are on a boat in the blue lagoon surrounded by Scuttle, Sebastian, Flounder and friends who have prepared the mood in hopes that the couple will find their enchanted love. There she sits across the way, will he kiss the girl? Join us in celebrating this magical moment between Prince Eric and Ariel.

Key Points

- The Little Mermaid II captures the favorite scene when Prince Eric and Ariel fall in love in the lagoon and we ask, will he kiss the girl?
- Thomas Kinkadee loved The Little Mermaid and as a father to four daughters, he especially felt a connection to King Triton's character.
- There are fourteen hidden hearts in the painting.
- Other hidden icons referencing back to the film include: a fork, a trident, a pipe and two seashells.
